Please answer the following questions as completely as possible using only the space provided.

1. What subject area(s) would you like to study at camp? (accordion, fiddle, Cajun traditions, Creole/zydeco traditions, guitar, vocals, percussion, cuisine, Louisiana French, cultural history, etc.)

2. Please explain why you are interested in this opportunity and this/these subject area(s).

3. Please explain your background in this/these subject area(s). (Do you currently perform or study with a teacher, etc.?)

4. What would you hope to gain from attending the 2008 Dewey Balfa Cajun and Creole Heritage Week?

5. Do you plan to continue your study of this/these subject area(s) after camp, and if so, how?

6. Are you a Louisiana resident? If so, for how long? If not, where do you currently reside?

7. Please include anything else you feel may be a factor in your candidacy for a scholarship.

Please get in touch if we can answer any questions you have or if you'd like any more info. Merci bien!

The Dewey Balfa Cajun and Creole Heritage Week is co-hosted with the Louisiana Office of State Parks. Louisiana Folk Roots and its programs are funded through grants from ConocoPhillips, the Louisiana Division of the Arts, the Acadiana Arts Council, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities, Lafayette Consolidated Government, the Evangeline Parish Tourist Commission, the Lafayette Convention and Visitors Commission and through the generous support of the Friends of Louisiana Folk Roots and our communities.
